

Sheet	School	Example
Model Mapping	Chipping Sodbury	For planning coursework, essays and revision
Model Mapping	Emerson Green	To take notes at meetings - good for recapping, remembering etc
Model Mapping	Gillingstool	Use of planning stories (beginning, middle, end) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To review topic (very good in science) Elicit knowledge. Use to recap a topic - what can they add to their maps? Assess existing knowledge of a topic then again at end of topic Sorting items into groups (e.g. food) and naming categories so they can make links (reception)
Model Mapping	Hanham Abbots Junior School	as a tool for staff use - inspiration software as a tool to improve writing skills in literacy e.g. writing paragraphs, planning stories, developing characters to support fiction non and fiction writing In science - start and end of unit.
Model Mapping	King Edmunds Community School	To aid revision of half termly tests
Model Mapping	Kingsfield	Industrial Britain Tudors/Stuarts Native Americans Word association mind modelling
Model Mapping	Marlwood	Yr 11 - for revision for chunking down, creating notes, organising work
Model Mapping	Pucklechurch	Planning of powerpoint presentations
Model Mapping	Sir Bernard Lovell	Re-planning a GCSE topic - teaching order by connections All 'notes' for a Y8 topic (1 new terms length) only as a mind map. Nothing else written.

Sheet	School	Example
Model Mapping	St Annes Frampton Cotterell	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Using at the beginning to assess prior learning and end of topics for assessment▪ Explaining to partners using model maps, then explaining to whole class
Model Mapping	The Meadows	Model mapping in science and literacy Mind mapping when making whole school plans e.g. SIP
Model Mapping	Warmley Park	Using symbols for pupils with SLD to aid their planning Students help create a class display by making their own mind maps