

National PE and School Sport Professional Development Programme

Primary PE Assessment Course with Core Tasks (3 hrs)

Dates:

Tuesday 8th June 2010 - Frampton Cottrell C of E School, morning or afternoon
Or

Wednesday 9th June 2010 - Almondsbury C of E School, morning or afternoon

Time: 3 hour course, morning or afternoon - see table below for times

Cost: Fully funded. This course can be claimed as ½ day CPD training through the PLT reimbursement form

Tutors: The course has been designed and will be delivered by South Gloucestershire Primary and Secondary PE specialists.

Audience: Anyone who facilitates learning in PE & Sport at Primary phase and is involved in levelling attainment and tracking pupils' progress in all areas of the Physical Education curriculum.

Aims and benefits

- * To develop high quality teaching and learning through a simple assessment system designed to accurately identify and record pupils' levels.
- * To share best practice & improve moderation of pupils' work by standardising assessment from KS1 in line with the National Curriculum.
- * To improve the quality and consistency of assessment in PE by providing colleagues with a resource pack of motivating activities with an accompanying DVD for visual support (fully funded).
For an electronic version of the assessment sheets that are available, please bring a memory stick on the day.

Outline of the course

The 3 hour course will include:

- * Familiarisation with the resource pack and how to use it effectively.
- * Practice in assessing pupils' levels through lesson observations
- * Opportunity for feedback, discussion and questions.
- * Suggestions for its implementation within school
